- Curriculum/ Learning

Our curriculum is based on the national curriculum, and the delivery of core

Family Information Network Directory

curriculum subjects offers students the opportunity to improve their skills particularly where they have gaps or have difficulty with learning skills or concepts. Improvements in literacy and numeracy are key to the long-term success of students. We use a baseline assessment to determine where young people are up to in their learning. We have found that a large number struggle with reading and comprehension, so we give them the opportunity to work on a one to one basis to help improve this. The scheme, and our teachers, makes a huge difference very quickly. This in turn engages the students and improves their learning and development. Ashcroft School has a modular approach to the curriculum that is very effective in helping to motivate students, particularly those who are only with us for a short time. Our curriculum strives to be progressive with careful reference to both local and national research and development. We aim to ensure it not only meets the immediate needs of our students but it also provides them with the tools to access further education, training and employment.

Service name:	Inscape House School
Organisation name:	Inscape House School
Type of organisation:	Non- Maintained Day Special School
What does the organisation do?	At Inscape House School, we meet the needs of children and young people aged 4 to 19 years with autism spectrum conditions and related social communication difficulties. All our learners are offered a broad, balanced and differentiated curriculum and follow a personalised approach. This helps children and young people to make the best possible progress academically, whilst continuing to develop their social understanding, communication and relationship skills for the future. We want our learners to achieve the best possible outcomes whatever the extent of their autism or learning difficulties. We welcome contact from parents/carers and professionals who are seeking places for young people at the school
What services are offered?	The Together Trust offers a range of educational services for young people and adults with multiple and complex learning disabilities including autism spectrum conditions (ASC) and complex emotional difficulties. All services are accessible to young people across the UK. Inscape House School is a non-maintained day special school in Cheadle, Cheshire. We take referrals from all over the UK. Our school can meet the needs of children and young people aged 4 to 19 years with autism spectrum conditions and related social communication difficulties. Inscape is operated by the charity the Together Trust. Young people within the autism spectrum share a pattern of differences affecting social understanding and social skills, communication and social imagination. We believe that each young person has individual strengths which can be harnessed to support their learning. We believe that the following, makes all the difference? Skills and strategies. Personalised approaches. Shared Understanding. Power with approaches. Independent and valued citizen. This response starts with attempting to see the world from their perspective and from there, teaching them skills and strategies to cope with the demands of everyday life. Skills: Things the person has learned to do independently in any aspect of their lives. Strategies: Things that help the person to learn and maintain skills. Crucially, strategies need to be &amp;#8216;owned&amp;#8217; by the person with autism and should reduce dependency on staff &amp;#8216;telling&amp;#8217; them what to do. In doing this, we work in close collaboration with families, appreciating that parents and siblings have a unique understanding of the young person with autism. Some students may contribute using signs and symbols or photographs and video, others may play an active role in their annual reviews. We also have a very active student council with representatives from every class. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jufrDQTDuEo
Who is the service for?	Inscape House School is a day special school for children and young people with autism and other social communication difficulties aged 4 to 19 years. In our supportive environment, the school recognises potential, enables learning, maximises independence and celebrates the achievements of all in our care. We have a large team of specialist therapists including speech and language therapists (SaLT), occupational therapists (OT), an educational psychologist (EP), a team of Positive Behaviour Support (PBS) practitioners, a counsellor, a member of the therapy team who can offer floor therapy, intensive interaction and drop in play sessions.
Who uses the service?	Child with disabilities
Who are the eligible users?	We welcome contact from parents and professionals who are seeking places for young people at the school as it gives us the opportunity to explain more about ourselves and to answer any questions that you may have. Admissions do not depend upon a diagnosis of an autism spectrum condition (ASC) but upon a common pattern of special educational needs. This includes the need for: A broad curriculum with an emphasis on the development of social, communication and independence skills. Structure and specialism in the teaching approaches

Service name:	OSSME
Organisation name:	Autism Initiatives, OSSME, Outreach Support Service for Mainstream Education
Type of organisation:	OSSME
What does the organisation do?	Education, Home Environment and Training Outreach Support Service in Mainstream Education (OSSME) is part of Autism Initiatives and is a specialist outreach education support service commissioned by mainstream and specialist schools, colleges, universities, families, the Local Authority and other professionals. We have a sound knowledge of SEND Code of Practice and adhere to the principles underpinning it.
What services are offered?	Education & OSSME has person centered service models to support children and young people (CYP) with SEND, aged 3 and 25 years&#894; working in partnership and consultation with families, professionals and the CYP to ensure high aspirations and improve outcomes for the CYP. Families and the CYP are involved in each stage of support from planning, monitoring progress to evaluations and next steps, whether in school or in specific circumstances outlined in the SEND Code of Practice. E.g. social care, excluded or at risk of exclusion from education, alternative education. & OSSME&#8217;s personalised support, within the 5 Point Star Framework, ensures that information about the CYP&#8217;s learning and cognition, communication and interaction, social, emotional and mental health and sensory and/or physical needs are supported correctly (SEND CoP). & School SENCos are expected to make sure that CYP learn and make progress. They are expected to explore information from families, CYP, teacher/formalised assessment, and advice from external support services if a CYP isn&#8217;t making progress or achieving their academic potential. LA&#8217;s expect schools to look at quality first teaching and include strategies/programmes/interventions to break down barriers to learning. OSSME work with schools, families, the CYP and other professionals to ensure that assessments are formative and approaches are graduated (assess, plan, do and review) and targeted with clear outcomes that are evidenced in every day practice. The outcomes of assessments inform possible changes in teaching practices, specific interventions, programmes, and personalised targets. OSSME, school staff, the CYP and family regularly review targets&#894; termly or preferably 6 weekly to ensure positive outcomes. & OSSME facilitates activities between the CYP and their peers and will direct them to, and support them in, external activities within AI and the Local Offer. OSSME support families with personal budgets. Home Environment OSSME empowers CYP and families with appropriate knowledge and skills through personalised training and modelling of good practice. Personalised programmes (e.g. social anxiety, puberty), interventions (e.g. transitions, social competence groups, sibling groups, life skills) and strategies would be selected after assessing the child and young person&#8217;s prime need. Training OSSME will use a combination of some of the programmes, interventions and strategies which they have been highly trained and experienced in delivering and provide resources to supplement them&#894; & TEACCH & Social Enterprise & Social Stories and Comic Strip Conversations & Draw and write & 5 Point Star & 3rd person approach. & Role play & Mind maps & Visualisation & Play and interaction & Socialisation in Practice sessions &#8211; with school staff & Sensory menus & Personalised support packages such as puberty/sexuality, stress and anxiety, Diagnosis explanation, friendships, personal hygiene & Peers support &#8211; assemblies, tutor and small groups & Girls on the spectrum & Exams/revision & Curriculum differentiation & Communication aids & Transition packages &#8211; holidays, year group, class, school, college, university, work, adult services. & Complimentary education support & Positive behaviour support & Therapeutic support involving a combination of known interventions such as CBT, solution

Service name:	Parent to Parent Service
Organisation name:	The National Autistic Society
Type of organisation:	Voluntary sector organisation - National organisations
What does the organisation do?	Parent to Parent is the NAS's award winning UK wide confidential emotional support service, provided over the phone by trained volunteers, who are all parents of autistic children and adults. The volunteers are based across the whole of the UK, which means that there is increased anonymity for parents who may not want to share information with someone in their local area. The volunteers all have personal experience of autism and the impact it has on their own families. They are there to give parents and carers the opportunity to talk through any issues, feelings or problems they're experiencing. They can suggest helpful strategies, signpost them to other sources of information and support, or just provide a nonjudgmental listening ear.
What services are offered?	Primarily emotional support but volunteers can also suggest helpful strategies, signpost parents to other sources of information and support, or just provide a nonjudgmental listening ear.

- How long is the care plan and what is it?

The care plan is to find out information about your child prior to the day. It asks questions about getting around, personal hygiene, understanding and communication, behaviour and triggers and contact details. The care plan shouldn't take longer than 10 minutes to complete and helps staff to be aware of any likes and dislikes, behaviour triggers and coping mechanisms for each child.

- What can I expect from your activities you provide?

We provide a wide range of activities for every child to access. We have no more than 12 children that will attend one of our sessions, with at least 4 members of staff. In some instances, children may need 1:1 support, which is something that we can look in to when you contact the team.

- How much will the activities cost?

All our activities are different prices, the team will make you aware of any cost prior to you booking your child on to the session.

The building is all on one level, there is a small step into the front door, but otherwise everything is level access. There is one accessible toilet, and a wall mounted baby change unit available.

Unfortunately, we do not have adequate volunteers to enable this. All volunteers hold an enhanced DBS clearance and are subject to the church's child protection policy, but parents remain responsible for their own child's needs.

Frequently asked Questions:

- What does the term dual sensory loss or deafblind mean?
Someone would be considered to be deafblind or have a dual sensory loss if their combined hearing and sight loss causes them difficulty with communication, access to information and mobility
- Whats the difference between deafblind and dual sensory?
Deafblind usually refers to someone who is congenitally (born) deafblind. Dual Sensory Loss usually refers to someone who has acquired hearing and sight loss in later life

No, the majority of people with a dual sensory loss have some useful vision and some useful hearing - it is the combination which causes the difficulty

Yes

Yes, lego, board games, colouring

- What refreshments are available?

Tea, Coffee, Hot chocolate, healthy snacks, biscuits.

- What is the structure or routine in the group?

If we are having a guest speaker or talk this will be at 11am. Otherwise there is no routine as we know children with autism find transitions hard. The toys will be packed up once the children have gone so no distress is caused and the snacks are available to be taken freely from the refreshment table so we are not asking children to sit down if they cannot still in one place for long

Frequently asked Questions:

- What training have staff supporting children and young people with SEND undertaken?

We have an unparalleled reputation in our field thanks to our commitment to meeting the diverse needs of these children and their families, coupled with our ability to deliver the best possible combination of nursing, therapy, medical care and education. Staff undertake continuing professional development both in-house and externally and are fully trained to meet the diverse needs of the children we work with. All staff undertake safeguarding training and first aid training is completed as required.

- Is your service fully accessible to children with SEND and their families?

All our facilities are fully accessible. Staff ensure each child participates to the best of their ability in decision making, their individual timetable, and play and leisure activities. We use a range of communication aids to enable all children to participate even if they are nonverbal. Please feel free to contact us in advance to discuss your specific needs and we will work with you to resolve any access issues as far as possible.

- How do you quality assure your service?

Each child has their own assessment and tailored programmes/timetables which cater for their individual needs. We are inspected by Ofsted and CQC as well as carrying out our own ongoing monitoring including feedback from staff, families and children where possible. All staff and volunteers are required to complete and pass DBS prior to commencement of employment or placement. Our services are regulated by Ofsted and CQC, and we have robust safeguarding and whistleblowing procedures to ensure the safety of the children and young people we work with. Safety is of paramount importance to us and ratios of staff to children are worked out in accordance with their needs. Our site is secure with all of our residential houses featuring keypad entry and all visitors must be supervised onsite. Whilst we encourage the children and young people to access play and leisure activities and the local community, this is fully staffed and always with risk assessments having been carried out

- Is your service registered with any regulatory body or does it meet a Quality Assurance Standard?

We are inspected by Ofsted, Care Quality Commission, and the Charity Commission. More details can be found on our website www.thechildrenstrust.org.uk
